T'ai Chi Chih

Joy Through Motion

“This gentle form of exercise can help maintain strength, flexibility and balance, and could be the perfect activity for the rest of your life.”

T'ai Chi Chih is the art of Meditation in Movement. It is not a form of martial arts. It is a simplified form of T'ai Chi with only 19 movements and one pose. whereas Tai Chi has over 108. T'ai Chi Chih can be done while standing or sitting.

The benefits of these motions have been studied by Harvard and, while T'ai Chi Chih benefits vary from one individual to another; for me, I have improved my balance and feel calmer and more at peace. Who doesn't need that with the stress that we are faced with each day?

What do I wear? Just wear comfortable clothing and comfortable shoes. No special equipment is needed. Join the class and see what the “Joy In Movement” is.

Please join me for a class every Thursday
In the fitness center at 1 p.m.

Certified Instructor Colleen Knight

I am a Certified T'ai Chi Chih Instructor. I have lived here in the Vista View Resort for the past 8 years. My last place of residence was Rochester, MN, where I first began learning about T'ai Chi Chih. I have been practicing the philosophies of T'ai Chi Chih for 11 years now and became a Certified Teacher in November 2020.
